GOOD MORNING

Good morning to everyone in this world I just stopped by to give you an encouraging word before you start your day.

Today is a lovely day and I truly appreciate it and its fullness of bright daylight, although my day cannot began until I humble myself and pray I am blessed and thankful that God has allowed me to see another day.

Early in the morning the air is fresh and cool it rejuvenates my mind when I recite my poetry every time. This day I welcome into my world and I have no complaints because in it I seem to always find tranquility and peacefulness for my sometimes troubled mind.

The Lord up in Heaven is my shepherd and the leader in my life. He is the one who removes all of my strife.

I would like to thank every mother and father in this world who are doing an excellent job in raising their children, and one day they will grow up to be adults whom you will be proud of.

There is someone in this world who needs hope and I will pray for you and ask God to bless you and your struggles in life without the use of dope.

SMILE

Smile as you continue on your way and find love and happiness within yourself, and from this gesture you may be able to encourage another person to find joy and happiness within themselves, and not look for another person to give this to them.

THANKFUL

I do not have much, but I am thankful it was my heart that God touched. He daily lets me know that I should keep trying to do good things in life, and one day when he is ready he will send a blessing upon my life as I continue to help others without any complaints. I am thankful for the oxygen that I daily receive it is the Lord up in heaven who supplies all of my needs

HIGHLIGHTS

ENCOURAGEMENT

You may be a student in school and I encourage you to prosper and be the best. When you study and give it your all in all great rewards will be given to you when you complete this task.

When you dedicate hard work towards your future goals you will be proud of yourself knowing the simple fact that it wasn't easy, but you were willing to work hard to accomplish this dream that you had which has come true all because you sacrificed everything and believed in you.

Great and prosperous blessings will be coming your way which will enhance all of the hard work you were willing to do. I would like to encourage and motivate you not to stop there, but continue on with another major should you choose in life to do.

The author, Ava Yvonne Tyler, would like to welcome you to her world of poetry with the thoughts of inspiring everyone in this world to have a lovely day as you pause a moment to pray.

2007 - God's Paradise was published by the author in the size of 6x9, and it was acknowledged by many readers as a good book to read which was listed in the top 100 category. She also had an ebook which was listed in the top 10 category.

2010 - God's Beautiful Paradise was published by the author in the size of 8 1/2 x 11 and every poem that was composed was meant to encourage, and motivate every reader with good positive thoughts about life and our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

2017 - God's Paradise 2 was published as a better and newer edition of God's Paradise which is meant to touch and enhance every person's heart and soul. The author created a newer version because so many people really loved the first book, so she decided to bring forth to the readers a second edition of what they said they wanted.

2017 - The author will have (3) Audio CDs in spoken word for your enjoyment to listen to in your leisure time of meditation.

God's Paradise, 2007, was listed as a good book to read on Google, Amazon, Yahoo and many other web sites.

FAITH

Today is a lovely day. My eyes are looking up towards heaven as I pray. My faith is with Thee. This lovely morning Lord you blessed me.

Lord, it is because of you that I was able to open my eyes as I graciously awoke from my sleep. That night before I closed my eyes I gave my heart and soul to you to keep. Lord, I would like to thank you for watching over me every day when I tire and need to sleep.

Heavenly Father, you are awesome to me as I read and seek for understanding from the Bible for what I need and reap. I pray to you my Lord every day of the week.
